

Child and Family Studies (CFS) Concentration Options

Child Development and Family Relations - CDFR

For students who wish to pursue a career in an educational setting. Focuses on child development, preschool classrooms, working with parents, family management/ cultures, professionalism. Can lead to teacher licensure after completing degree through alternative certification.

- CFS 4500 In-Person Internship
- 100% online

Consumer Services - CS

For students interested in starting or operating a business related to children and families. CFS course base, also includes business, finance, professionalism, leadership management, marketing, personnel supervision and staffing.

- CFS 4500 In-Person Internship
- 100% online

Child Welfare - CW

For students interested in careers with agencies that support a child welfare system. Child development core with additional course focus on abuse/trauma/addiction and welfare law in practice settings. Can lead to Master's in Social Work.

- SOWK 4190 In-Person Internship
- 100% online

Child Day Care Coaching - CDCC

For students interested in organizations that work with families and childcare environments in behavior analysis/trauma, while focusing on ethical supervision and professionalism.

- CFS 4500 In-Person Internship
- 100% online

CONTACT:

Jacqueline Horton | hortonj@nsula.edu
Child and Family Studies Program Coordinator

NORTHWESTERN STATE UNIVERSITY

Teacher Education Center
Natchitoches, LA 71497

Visit our website:
nsula.edu/CFS

